About the artwork

The art series serves as a reminder to 'realise the purpose of life'. We are sacred beings, capable of immense creativity and invention, yet we must recognise that the purpose of our 'origin' is far greater than we might imagine. Let us come together once more to acknowledge our connection with nature and the essence of our source. For the waters, the lands, the mountains, and the trees...

The universe and the planet, by their very nature, are in perfect form. What needs to change is 'us'—deep within our core—in order to align with the eternal harmony and transformation necessary for a collective global impact in the face of the current ecological crises.

Seek out these profound yet clear messages through the consistent patterns that nature employs as reminders all around and within us. The artworks underscore the importance of discovering our true purpose and recognising that each of us is sufficient in our own capacities. Resources are always available if we cultivate the right connection with our inner consciousness, curiosity, energies, and the holistic purpose of the universe.

All art pieces embody connected energies, inspired by nature, the cosmos, and everything within and around us, using only the word 'Allah'.

"...and He (Allah) is with you wherever you are..." (Surah Al-Hadeed, 57:4 - Al Quran)

These artworks, over ten in number, combine acrylic on paper and canvas. They are based on the very first letter of the Arabic script, 'Alif', and the sacred name 'Allah'.

The letter Alif and the word Allah are so infinite that I believe a lifetime of work would be insufficient to fully explore or even touch the surface of their meanings.

"If all the trees of the earth were pens and the oceans ink, with many more oceans to replenish them, the words of Allah would never come to an end. Indeed, Allah is all-mighty and all-wise." (Surah Luqman, 31:27 - Al Quran)
