About the artwork

The central idea of "Behind the Seas There Is a City" is the longing for a purer, brighter, and more humane world, an imagined city where people live with kindness, wisdom, and simplicity. Sohrab Sepehri describes a place where humanity has moved beyond materialism and violence, living instead in harmony with nature, beauty, and truth.

"Behind the seas" is also a symbol of an inner journey. It suggests that reaching such a place is not only about crossing physical distances, but about changing the way we see and understand the world. The poem is ultimately an invitation to peace, hope, self-awareness, and a more poetic way of looking at life.
