About the artwork

Sarah Alagroobi, born in Brussels, Belgium, is a multidisciplinary artist, researcher, and educator who holds an MA in Painting from the Royal College of Art in London. She explores notions of culture and identity in both Arab and Western contexts through post-colonial discourse. She uses her Emirati and Syrian heritage to mine personal and collective experiences that portray an agile simplicity in expression of place, borders and a sense of belonging. Her work has gathered the attention of leading design magazines ESTRO, ID and Close-Up and has been exhibited regionally and internationally at Somerset House, London, Salone del Mobile, Milan, Versus Art Project, Istanbul, Venice Biennale, Dutch Design Week, ME Collectors Room, Berlin and Warehouse421, Art Jameel, Art Dubai and Abu Dhabi Art and Serkal Avenue.
